AHEC Fort Smith
Trend Report
2009-2010
AHEC Fort Smith Training
Overall Summary
July 1, 2009 - June 30, 2010
AHEC Fort Smith
Health Careers Recruitment Program Participants

Trainees includes participants in:
- M*A*S*H (Medical Application of Science for Health), a 2-week summer program for High School students
- Mentor/Shadowing Experiences (High School and College)
AHEC Fort Smith
Family Medicine Residency Program Graduates
Practice Locations

Class of:
- 2000-01
- 2001-02
- 2002-03
- 2003-04
- 2004-05
- 2005-06
- 2006-07
- 2007-08
- 2008-09
- 2009-10

- Number in AR towns <15,000
- Number that remained in AR
- Total Graduates

Bar chart showing the number of graduates in the Family Medicine Residency Program from different classes, with categories for practice locations in Arkansas towns of different sizes.
AHEC Fort Smith
Medical Student Rotations

Trainees includes:
- UAMS students performing Family Medicine Preceptorships, Jr. Clerkships, Sr. Electives/Selectives, and Acting Internships
AHEC Fort Smith
Nursing Education and Clinical Rotations

Trainees includes:
- UAMS outreach nursing students
- Nursing student rotations from non-UAMS schools
Prior to 2009-10, trainees include both traditional and non-traditional UAMS student rotations.
AHEC Fort Smith
Continuing Education Programs

Attendance: May include the same person attending multiple programs.

*Decrease from previous years due to a restructuring of certification, financial, and reporting requirements within the UAMS CME office.
Library services include information requests, manual electronic searches, book journal circulation, audio visual support, interlibrary loans, and articles photocopied.