

CONFERENCE THEME

*Partners in Preparedness: Planning and Preparing
NOW*

MARK YOUR CALENDAR
TO ATTEND
The 6th ANNUAL
ARKANSAS STATEWIDE
PREPAREDNESS
CONFERENCE
September 14-15, 2009

Learn, Share, Plan, Prepare - For Arkansas

The DoubleTree Hotel
424 West Markham Street
Little Rock, AR

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Emergency Management Coordinators – Emergency Preparedness & Response Workers – Fire Fighters – First Responders – Healthcare Professionals – Law Enforcement – Hospital Bioterrorism Coordinators – Public Health Professionals – School Administrators and Nurses – State and Local Government Officials – Volunteer Coordinators – Nursing Home Administrators – Mental Health Professionals

JOINTLY SPONSORED BY

Arkansas Children's Hospital
AR Department of Emergency Management
AR Department of Health
AR Hospital Association
Arkansas Office - Federal Bureau of Investigation
Arkansas Tech University
University of Arkansas for Medical Sciences College of Medicine – Office of CME and UAMS Partners for Inclusive Communities

For information call: 501-661-7962 - E-Mail: cme@uams.edu

To make your hotel reservation at the DoubleTree Hotel call 501-372-4371.
Indicate that you are attending the Arkansas Statewide Preparedness Conference.

The cost to attend the conference is $50.00 which includes a continental breakfast, lunch, breaks, and materials.
The Conference Registration Site will be open SOON!

Featured Speakers

Joseph J. Contiguglia, MD

Clinical Professor of Public Health
Tulane University of Public Health and Tropical Medicine
Colonel, USAF, MC, CFS (ret)

Joseph E. Holley, MD

Director of E.R. at Baptist Collierville and Medical Director of "TENNESSEE ONE" Disaster Relief Team

Major General William D. Wofford

The Adjutant General, Arkansas National Guard