PURPOSE:

- To clarify the state and federally mandated regulations that relate to school-based wellness programs
- To provide schools with a venue to network and discuss resources and strategies that lead to a reduction in childhood obesity
AGENDA:

8:00-8:30  Continental Breakfast

8:30-9:00  Welcome and Introduction
  Dr. James Raczynski, Dean, UAMS, COPH
  Dr. Paul Halverson, Director of the Division of Health, DHHS
  Dr. Joe Thompson, Director, ACHI, Surgeon General

9:00-9:30  Act 1220 Update: Keeping the Pace
  Dr. Martha Phillips, Center Director, Division of Health

9:45-11:00 Regulations or Recommendations?
  Dee Cox, ADE
  Sheila Brown, ADE
  Robert Brech, DHHS
  Diane Mackey, Moderator

11:00-11:30 Moving Forward with the School Health Index
  Laura McDowell, ADE

11:30-12:30 Lunch (served on-site)

12:30-1:15 First Place Schools
  Tennille Allen, School Nurse
  Dru Roberts, Educator
  M.C. Taylor, Educator

1:15-1:45 Parents Taking the Lead
  Michelle Young, Grant Writer
  Jamie Oitker, Coach

2:00-2:45 Community Health Specialists: Coaching Schools for Success
  Community Health Nurse Specialists
  Community Health Promotion Specialists

2:45-3:45 Curriculum in Motion
  Dr. Blair Dean, ASU

3:45-4:15 Resources for Winning
  Margo Bushniaer
  Brooke Montgomery
  Amanda Philyaw

4:15-4:30 Wrap-up and Evaluations

Location:
C.A. Vines Arkansas 4-H Center, Little Rock, Ark.

Contact:
Amanda Philyaw
(501) 686-6802
philyawamandag@uams.edu

Directions: http://www.arkansas4hcenter.org/