AHEC Northwest
Trend Report
2009-2010
AHEC Northwest (Fayetteville/Springdale) Training
Overall Summary
July 1, 2009 - June 30, 2010
Trainees may include:
- CHAMPS (Community Health Applied in Medical Public Service), a 1-week summer experience for Junior High School students
- M*A*S*H (Medical Application of Science for Health), a 2-week summer program for High School students
- Mentor/Shadowing Experiences (Jr High School, High School and College)
AHEC Northwest
Family Medicine Residency Program Graduates

Class of:

Number in AR towns <10,000  Number remained in AR  Total Graduates

2000-01  9  6  4
2001-02  9  5  5
2002-03  8  6  6
2003-04  7  7  7
2004-05  7  7  7
2005-06  8  5  5
2006-07  8  5  5
2007-08  8  1  1
2008-09  8  1  1
2009-10  9  3  3
Trainees may include:
- UAMS students performing Family Medicine Preceptorships, Jr. Clerkships, Sr. Electives/Selectives, and Acting Internships
- Out of state students performing AHEC rotations
AHEC Northwest
Nursing Education and Clinical Rotations

Trainees may include:
- UAMS outreach nursing students (BSN to MSN level didactic courses and/or clinical rotations)
- Nursing student rotations from non-UAMS schools ranging from LPN to MSN
Prior to 2009-10, trainees include both traditional and non-traditional UAMS student rotations.
AHEC Northwest
Medical Interpreter Training

2008-09 2009-10

Trainees

32 24
Trainees may include:
- Radiologic Technology, AHEC Program
- Respiratory Care, AHEC Program
- Diagnostic Medical Sonography
- Medical Technology, UAMS Student Rotation
- Nuclear Medicine, UAMS Student Rotation
Attendance: May include the same person attending multiple programs.

*Includes events and presentations conducted by new AHEC Pre-Health Professions Recruiters and Outreach Directors. Next year, their data will be reported in separate categories.
Attendance: May include the same person attending multiple programs.

*Decrease from previous years due to a restructuring of certification, financial, and reporting requirements within the UAMS CME office.